

Mike McCoy Ministries Decisions Determine Our Destiny

Empowering youth to develop a greater vision for their lives

Mike McCoy's passion is empowering youth and helping them develop a larger vision for their lives.

Mike delivers a faith-based message of hope and encouragement to students in Catholic schools that helps them make good decisions, overcome challenges and deal with peer pressure to develop the self-confidence to achieve true success.

Mike believes every student in America is at risk regardless of their race, creed, or if they are rich, middle class or poor. Whether they attend a public school, private school, Christian school, or a Catholic school, they are all at risk.

Mike is standing against the influences that are undermining the future of so many. He lays out a faith-based plan around land mines in the field of life to help students lead a life of purpose as planned by our Creator.

Mike McCoy Ministries has intervened to help prevent suicides, fight addictions, and to inform students that help is available to assist them in making better decisions.

*Programs for grades 3-5 and 6-12
Mike also speaks at men's retreats, prisons, private schools, parishes and youth groups*

"I write to thank you for your recent visit to the Diocese of Rockford, and especially for the talk that I was able to be present for at Aurora Central Catholic High School. I know we discussed for quite some time the possibility of arranging your visit, and I am glad that it finally took place. I am grateful as well for the comments of the young people following your presentation and the recognition once more of how you spoke to their hearts and to their faith."
